SWISS MOUNTAIN 15 YEARS OLD

Ice Label 2026 | Single Malt Whisky

Swiss Mountain Ice Label 2026 is a 15-year-old Swiss single malt from Rugenbräu, bottled at its natural cask strength of 53.6%. It is unfiltered and uncoloured, and the release is limited to 950 bottles. MATURATION: The whisky spent its first four years in the Rugen rock cellar at the brewery. It then matured for eleven years in an ice grotto on the Jungfraujoch, 3,454 metres above sea level, at a constant minus four degrees. It matured exclusively in Oloroso sherry casks. SERVING: Serve neat at room temperature in a tulip glass. At cask strength, a few drops of water, added one at a time, open the whisky gently.

Tasting notes

Color
Amber with a golden-yellow sheen.

Aroma
Raisins and dried fruit combine with toffee, cocoa and dark chocolate.

Taste
Velvety and harmoniously balanced, with depth and an elegant sweetness.

Finish
Raisins and dessert wine, then fine wood notes and a touch of liquorice root. The aftertaste is long-lasting.

RUGENBRÄU Rugenbräu is an independent family brewery, founded in 1866 at Matten bei Interlaken in the Bernese Oberland. In 1999 it presented what it calls the first official beer distilled in Switzerland, which opened the way to Swiss whisky. The first Swiss Mountain Single Malt reached the market in 2008. The distillery stands directly above the brewhouse, and its casks rest in the Rugen rock cellar, dating from 1875.
