

PARÉS BALTÀ ELECTIO

2012 Microcuvée | D.O Penedès | Jeroboam 3L

Made exclusively from Xarel·lo grapes, a variety indigenous to the Penedès region. The grapes come from vineyards over 80 years old, located in areas with special soils and microclimates. Electio 2012 is part of a collection of Microcuvée wines, an exclusive selection of organic and biodynamic wines produced in very limited quantities, only in the best years.

Tasting notes

Color

Clear yellow with light green hues.

Aroma

Intense aromas of very ripe fruit and flowers with a mineral undertone.

Taste

Delicate and complex. Rich with a silky texture coming from the battonage. Again loads of fruit and flowers, with woody hints.

Finish

Pleasant long finish.
