

CANASINTH ABSINTHE LIQUEUR

Die Grüne Fee

Canasinth is an absinthe liqueur with a gentle aroma of hemp flowers. Canasinth is produced in the Val-de-Travers, the birthplace of absinthe. During the production process, local plants from the region and Swiss hemp, picked by hand, are used. The result is a 100% natural cannabis extract, which is then added to the absinthe.

Tasting advice : 1 part absinthe on ice, in shot or in cocktail.

Tasting notes

Color

Clear

Aroma

Delicate hemp flowers accompanied by anise, wormwood and aromatic plants

Taste

The Canasinth offers a multitude of flavours and a pleasant sweetness on the finish, with a delicate fragrance of hemp flowers.

Finish

Various flavours and a pleasing sweetness in the finish.

Hemp is one of the oldest crops worldwide. In China, the plant was already used about 10,000 years ago. Due to its intense aroma it is suitable for unique cocktails and culinary creations. Hemp is also used more and more frequently in the food-industry