

CRAGGANMORE 12 YEARS OLD

Special Release 2019 | Single Malt Whisky

An unusual smoky expression of a Speyside classic, never released before, matured in refill American oak casks. This bottle is part of the "Rare by Nature" collection, which celebrates whiskies with distinctive maturation techniques, rare finishes, and unexpected taste profiles. This year's cask strength releases, bring to life the unique character of each of the distilleries. The bottlings are all extremely rare limited editions.

Tasting notes

Color

Bright straw yellow

Aroma

Candies, notes of apple pie, leather as well as a touch of oak with a hint of peat, smoke and ashy flavours.

Taste

Supple and at the same time rich, with sweet, salty and smoky accents.

Finish

Long lasting, voluptuous, smoky and extremely aromatic.

About the Distillery Cragganmore is home to one of the most complex and prestigious malt whiskies, the distillery was founded by John Smith in 1869. Its pleasant aromas are among the most complex to be found among single malts, and they are as mysterious and elusive as the barn owl that stalks its prey in the Speyside Glens woods in the evening.