ENTER.SAKE SOOKUU JUNMAI

by Richie Hawtin | Rice Polishing 60%

Fruity, medium dry, smooth. Produced at the Fujioka Shuzo established in 1902, a very small brewery where Fujioka-san personally directs each step of the labor and time intensive process to produce a truly handmade sake. In 2002, 5th generation Masaaki Fujioka re-opened the brewery establishing the new Sake brand “SOOKUU” aiming to brew a Sake with its taste reflecting a gentle clear blue sky. The brewery is located at Fushimi, nationally known in Japan for its refined water which gives SOOKUU its distinctive silky taste.

Tasting notes

Taste

Clean rice notes combined with sweet Asian pear followed by an umami finish and lingering acidity.

About the Brand ENTER.Sake is a boutique product curated by world-renowned musician and DJ Richie Hawtin, who has been exploring the world of sake for twenty years during his extensive trips to Japan. For the past years, Richie has promoted sake as a core part of the ENTER. experience.
