BERTO BITTER

Antica Distilleria Quaglia

A traditional bitter liqueur made from herbs, citrus and spices. Gentian, quassia and Carlina acaulis are infused for a long time in alcohol to give this classic liqueur its unique taste and elegant bitter notes.

Tasting notes

Color

Reddish with highlights from blood orange.

Aroma

Many different aromatic notes of gentian root, wormwood, alpine daisy, sweet and bitter orange, vanilla and cinnamon.

Taste

Rich and elegant, with notes of bitter orange, rose and gentian.

Finish

A truly exceptional and "aristocratic" bitter.

About the distillery Antica Distilleria Quaglia is a fourth-generation family business. Since 1890, the distillery located north of Turin has been producing high quality spirits and liqueurs. Even today, the most exquisite and refined ingredients that Piedmont has to offer are still used. Without losing sight of tradition and authenticity, the production processes are constantly improved in order to offer the best quality.
