

CHARTREUSE REINE DES LIQUEURS

2026 | Limited Edition Liqueur

Chartreuse Reine des Liqueurs is a blend of aged yellow liqueurs selected by the Carthusian monks. This Mise (release) 2026 is bottled at 43% volume.

COMPOSITION: The liqueur contains extracts from 130 plants, together with alcohol, sugar and water. The monks keep the detailed recipe secret. SUGGESTIONS: Serve slightly chilled in a small glass, or over a little ice. Almond pastries make a simple accompaniment.

Tasting notes

Color

Clear yellow-gold.

Aroma

Honey, dried flowers and candied citrus, followed by herbs.

Taste

Rounded and sweet, with fresh herbal notes and gentle spice.

Finish

A long finish of herbs, spice and honey.

CHARTREUSE The Carthusian monks received the manuscript behind their liqueur tradition in 1605. The yellow formula was developed in 1838 and sold as Chartreuse Jaune from 1840. Production moved to Aiguenoire, at Entre-Deux-Guiers, in 2018. The historic cellars at Voiron remain associated with ageing and visits.
