

DICTADOR ORLINSKI GREY & PINK

Game Changer Series | Art Rum

Dictador Game Changer Orlinski Grey & Pink is an art rum in a grey-and-pink glass bottle, created within the Dictador x Richard Orlinski series. The sculpted Kong-head stopper carries Orlinski's signature. Numbered limited edition, bottled at 40% volume. MATURATION: the Dictador blend is distilled in Cartagena from fermented virgin cane honey, using pot and column stills, then aged under Colombia's warm Caribbean climate in American oak casks. SERVING: serve neat at room temperature in a tasting glass, or as a short Rum Old Fashioned with cane syrup, a dash or two of The Bitter Truth Old Time Aromatic Bitters, and orange zest.

Tasting notes

Color

Amber gold.

Aroma

Maple syrup and dark caramel first, then orange peel, clove, roasted cocoa and a faint coffee-candy note.

Taste

Caramel, roasted nuts and dried citrus carry the palate, with measured sweetness and gentle spice.

Finish

Medium-long, sweet-spiced finish with candied orange, coffee and toasted vanilla. DICTADOR x ORLINSKI The Game Changer collection is born of the encounter between Dictador and French contemporary artist Richard Orlinski, the world's best-selling living artist in his segment since 2015. Known for his faceted style and pop colours, Orlinski gives each edition a unique Dictador bottle topped by a sculpted 'Kong' head stopper — a direct reference to his most iconic work.
