Tasting notes

Color

Rich copper colour with flashes of red and orange

Aroma

It's deep and rich with a lot of fruit, bursting with aromas. Chocolate, coffee and a little citrus. Well aged oak and spice comes through clearly as well, this rum has a lot to offer.

Taste

Initially sweet, once again very intense and citrusy. The mouth feel is rich and smooth. The rum can be left in the mouth and swirled around coating taste buds beautifully

Finish

There is minimal burn and is very long and very intense on the finish. Spicy and layered with tropical fruits and rich dark cocoa
