

LEDAIG SHERRY 1992 / 30 YEARS OLD

Samaroli | Cask # 151 | 2022 Release

An Island Single Malt Scotch Whisky From the Ledaig Distillery. Distilled in 1992, bottled in Scotland in 2022 by independent bottler Samaroli, from selected cask #151. Limited release of only 325 bottles. Despite its young age, the mastery of the woods delivers it with a delicately peaty tone. Notes of yeast, butter and smoked meat appear shyly on the nose, like the scents of an extinguished fireplace after the night.

Tasting notes

Taste

The saline dimension surprises for its balance and harmony. Saline and mineral tips followed by toasted tones of almond, hazelnut and candied fruit.

About Independent Bottler Samaroli: Samaroli is probably Italy's most renowned independent bottler, considered a visionary by most. Impeccable taste and an eye for aesthetics have given numerous of his bottlings a worthy place in the pantheon of whisky and rum giants. Today the production is under Antonio Bleve's direction, who has collaborated with Samaroli for many years and shares the passion and philosophy of the house. Antonio Bleve continues his quest for exceptional casks, relying on the brand's historical relationships and new interactions, making their latest bottlings increasingly in demand.