

BRAEVAL 1994 / 28 YEARS OLD

Samaroli | Cask No.165697 | 2022 Release

The last bottling of Breval 1994. This is a whisky confirms that every single barrel of malt whisky lives out a parallel yet different life, evolving like an overlapping universe. An extraordinary Speyside Single Malt Scotch Whisky, distilled in 1994, bottled in Scotland in 2022 by independent bottler Samaroli from a single selected cask #165697. This is a limited release of only 151 bottles.

Tasting notes

Aroma

Reassuring to the nose, the full-on Samaroli genome: elegance. The floral persistence alternates with tones of fruit. The spicy and dusty tendency of the pink peppercorn and cocoa cradle us as though on waves.

Taste

Pungent, in a classic array of solos. Oregano, mint, raisins.

About Independent Bottler Samaroli: Samaroli is probably Italy's most renowned independent bottler, considered a visionary by most. Impeccable taste and an eye for aesthetics have given numerous of his bottlings a worthy place in the pantheon of whisky and rum giants. Today the production is under Antonio Bleve's direction, who has collaborated with Samaroli for many years and shares the passion and philosophy of the house. Antonio Bleve continues his quest for exceptional casks, relying on the brand's historical relationships and new interactions, making their latest bottlings increasingly in demand.
