

GLEN GARIOCH 1990 | 23 YEARS OLD

Samaroli Single Cask | 2013 Release

Samaroli bottled this Glen Garioch in 2013 from single cask 5874 at 45% volume. Founded in Rome in 1968, the house is widely described as the first independent Scotch whisky bottler based outside the UK. It had already released Glen Garioch from the 1971 vintage. DISTILLATION & MATURATION: Distilled in 1990, the whisky matured for 23 years before bottling. The distillery used smoked barley up to its 1995 vintage, closed that year and reopened in 1997 making unpeated spirit. SUGGESTIONS: Serve neat in a tulip glass at room temperature. Add water a few drops at a time to reduce the strength.

Tasting notes

GLEN GARIOCH DISTILLERY Glen Garioch dates its founding to 1797, when the Manson brothers set up a distillery and brewery in Oldmeldrum, a market town near Aberdeen. The whisky is known as a Highland malt, though the distillery stands in Aberdeenshire. In 1972 and 1973 it was expanded from two stills to four and released its first single malt.
