

LINKWOOD 1984 / 31 YO

Samaroli | Cask No. 5297 | II Release 2015

The second and last release of Linkwood single malt, single cask whisky, aged to perfection. A dram with a mature and sophisticated character. Limited edition of only 340 numbered bottles.

Tasting notes

Aroma

Intense bouquet of ripe fruit, oak and spices.

Taste

Rich and harmonious. Sweet notes of honey, vanilla, heather and ripe pear.

Finish

Persistent and generous.

About the Distillery The Linkwood Distillery was founded in 1821 by Peter Brown in the southern outskirts of Elgin. In 1970 a second distillery was built alongside the first and four new stills were added. Today, only the washbacks from the two original stills are being used and all the stills are heated by steam.