

SAMAROLI DEMERARA SYMPHONY 03-04

2021 Edition Blended Rum

Samaroli Symphony is a harmonious blend of two rare Demerara rums from 2003 and 2004. Bottled in Scotland in 2021 by renowned independent bottler Samaroli, this limited-edition rum offers a rich and complex profile that speaks to true connoisseurs. Each bottle captures the essence of Guyana's finest Demerara sugarcane, aged to perfection and meticulously blended to create a velvety, full-bodied experience. This is a collector's gem with only a limited number of bottles available.

Tasting notes

Aroma

Aromas of vintage brandy with hints of thyme and roasted juniper berries.

Taste

Complex and intense with notes of tamarind, toasted walnuts, and rose water.