

SAMAROLI JAMAICA RUM 2004

2021 Release | Cask No.19 | 17 Years Old

The Jamaican rum comes from Single Cask No.19, for this limited edition only 312 bottles have been released. Samaroli offers single malts and single casks selected for their exceptional character. On each Samaroli bottle, the year of the cask, the year of bottling, the number of bottles obtained from each cask and the individual number of the bottle are marked.

Tasting notes

Color

Amber with golden hues.

Aroma

Sweet almond tarts along with roasted cashew nuts and notes of marzipan.

Taste

Yeasty tones on the palate, vanilla and freshly crushed pistachios. Crisp spices intertwine with charred banana and pineapple.

Finish

An earthy touch of tobacco leaf and aged leather.

About Samaroli: Samaroli is probably Italy's most renowned independent bottler. With his irreproachable taste for single cask whiskies and an eye for aesthetics, he is considered a visionary by most. Numerous of his bottlings now occupy a worthy place in the pantheon of whisky and rum giants. Today the production is under Antonio Bleve's direction, who has worked with Samaroli for many years and shares the passion and philosophy of the house. Antonio Bleve continues his quest for exceptional casks, relying on the brand's historical relationships and new interactions, making their latest bottlings increasingly in demand.