

SAMAROLI YEHMON CLASSIC 2022

First Release | Blended Rum

This rum is part of the YEHMON TRILOGY collection. Three blends, three spirits, reflecting three soulful manners of rum-making. A more reassuring classic, a slightly dreamy vintage and a retro nostalgic one. Yehmon Classic displays a British style rum, predominantly molasses, distilled in pot stills. This blend contains a 2007 Demerara and a 2010 Barbados rum.

Tasting notes

Aroma

Sophisticated with pointed fragrances and balsamic plants, oriental spices and dishes.

Taste

Dried fruits, hazelnut, tobacco, liquorice. Highly persistent perceptions leave little room for interpretation. Penetrating and austere in the mouth.

About Independent Bottler Samaroli: Samaroli is probably Italy's most renowned independent bottler, considered a visionary by most. Impeccable taste and an eye for aesthetics have given numerous of his bottlings a worthy place in the pantheon of whisky and rum giants. Today the production is under Antonio Bleve's direction, who has worked with Samaroli for many years and shares the passion and philosophy of the house. Antonio Bleve continues his quest for exceptional casks, relying on the brand's historical relationships and new interactions, making their latest bottlings increasingly in demand.
