

SAMAROLI YEHMON RETRO 2022

First Release | Blended Rum

Yehmon Retro 2022 embodies the essence of Hispanic-style rums, crafted through traditional distillation in column stills and made exclusively from molasses. This blended rum comprises one cask of 2000 Nicaragua rum and one cask of 2010 Trinidad rum. The Yehmon Trilogy series presents a trio of rum blends, each embodying a distinct approach to rum-making. Within this collection, you'll find a comforting classic, a slightly dreamy vintage, and a nostalgic throwback to yesteryears.

Tasting notes

Taste

Fine and subtle with aromatic variations of an array of grasses.

About Independent Bottler Samaroli: Samaroli is probably Italy's most renowned independent bottler, considered a visionary by most. Impeccable taste and an eye for aesthetics have given numerous of his bottlings a worthy place in the pantheon of whisky and rum giants. Today the production is under Antonio Bleve's direction, who has worked with Samaroli for many years and shares the passion and philosophy of the house. Antonio Bleve continues his quest for exceptional casks, relying on the brand's historical relationships and new interactions, making their latest bottlings increasingly in demand.