

SAMAROLI YEHMON VINTAGE 2022

First Release | Blended Rum

This rum is part of the YEHMON TRILOGY collection. Three blends, three spirits, reflecting three soulful manners of rum-making. A more reassuring classic, a slightly dreamy vintage and a retro nostalgic one. Yehmon Vintage displays a French Style Rum, traditionally produced with just sugar cane, resulting in what we know today as "rhum agricole". This blend contains a 2013 Guadeloupe and a 2004 Haiti Barbancout rum, bottled by Independent Bottler Samaroli in 2022.

Tasting notes

Aroma

Chocolate, black cherry, almond and dried fruit.

Taste

The palate is enveloping, echoing balsamic notes despite the prevalence of tobacco, vanilla and liquorice.

About Independent Bottler Samaroli: Samaroli is probably Italy's most renowned independent bottler, considered a visionary by most. Impeccable taste and an eye for aesthetics have given numerous of his bottlings a worthy place in the pantheon of whisky and rum giants. Today the production is under Antonio Bleve's direction, who has worked with Samaroli for many years and shares the passion and philosophy of the house. Antonio Bleve continues his quest for exceptional casks, relying on the brand's historical relationships and new interactions, making their latest bottlings increasingly in demand.
