

BALVENIE 14 YEARS OLD

The Week of Peat | 2019 Release

This is the story about distillery manager Ian Millar who was keen to experiment with The Balvenie flavor profile using what he had learned from a trip to Islay. For a week a year, The Balvenie distills a batch of peated malt, resulting in a whisky rich in honey, vanilla and citrus notes with an extra layer of delicate smokiness.

Tasting notes

Aroma

Sweet peat smoke with subtle floral notes.

Taste

Velvety and round with the peat smoke balancing citrus flavors, oaky vanilla and blossom honey.

Finish

Gentle smoke with a lingering and creamy vanilla sweetness.
