

BALVENIE 14 YEARS OLD

Peat Week | Single Malt Whisky

Since 2002, the Balvenie distillers have dedicated one week a year to distilling whisky with 100% peated barley, resulting in the Peat Week bottlings! This is the second release in the series - a 14 year old single malt distilled in 2003, showing off hearty helping of rich smoke.

Tasting notes

Aroma

Toasted oak with a hint of heather, stroopwafel and coffee, flamed orange peel and dry cedar

Taste

Butterscotch, roasted apricot, a light touch of floral malt, grows enjoyably spicy as it develops

Finish

Earthy peat lingers alongside runny honey notes
