

BOOKER'S 7 YEARS OLD

Kentucky Straight Bourbon | 2021 Release

A rare barrel-strength bourbon bottled uncut and unfiltered. With every yearly release, Booker's displays their Mastery based on the knowledge passed on from generations. Each small batch has a story to tell... The 2021 - 01 E batch is named after retired Jim Beam employee Mike Donohoe who was a close friend to Booker Noe, founder and a sixth-generation master distiller who introduced the world to small batch bourbon. Today the distillery is run by his son Fred Noe, a 7th Generation Master Distiller from the Beam Family. Batch 2021 - 01 E was matured for over six years and is composed of barrels from two production dates aged in six different rack house locations: 16% came from the 2nd floor of 9-story warehouse H 8% came from the 6th floor of 9-story warehouse H 4% came from the 6th floor of 7-story warehouse L 16% came from the 4th floor of 7-story warehouse X 9% came from the 5th floor of 7-story warehouse X 47% came from the 5th floor of 7-story warehouse Z

Tasting notes

Color

Medium amber, reflecting the length of time spent in the white oak barrels.

Taste

Full-bodied with notes of vanilla and baking spice with a fulfilling warm finish, extremely pleasant especially during the cold winter months.
