

BENROMACH 40 YEARS OLD

Speyside Single Malt Whisky

A rare, single malt whisky matured in the finest sherry casks, the FORTY-YEAR-OLD single malt delivers fragrant spices and stewed red berries, followed by Morello cherry, dark chocolate and mature oak. The 2021 Release was bottled at a cask strength of 57.1%. Presented in a stunning black stained solid oak wooden box with copper-coloured detailing and printed metal plaques. The bottle features a heavily embossed and gold foiled label to complete the quality feel.

Tasting notes

Color

Dark Amber

Aroma

Fragrant cinnamon and ginger spices with Seville orange. Stewed red berries develop with a hint of roasted hazelnut.

Taste

Sweet Morello cherry flavours combined with baked apple and liquorice. Rich dark chocolate notes lead to fruitcake and subtle black pepper.

Finish

Full of forest fruits and mature oak notes.

About the Distillery The Benromach is a traditional Speyside family-owned distillery that produces single malt whiskies matured exclusively in first-fill casks, with a subtly smoky character. All of their casks are hand-filled, individually weighed, stencilled by hand and stowed in their traditional dunnage warehouses.
