BOWMORE 15 YEARS OLD

Sherry Oak Cask | Islay Single Malt Whisky

Bowmore 15 Years Old belongs to a collection of four single malts with age statements from 12 to 21 years. It is a separate release from the core-range expression of the same age and is bottled at 43% volume. MATURATION: The whisky matured in European oak casks that had held Oloroso and in American oak barrels that had held bourbon. It was then finished in European casks seasoned with Oloroso. SUGGESTIONS: Serve neat in a tulip glass, with water alongside to add a drop at a time. Smoked salmon or a mature hard cheese such as aged Gouda makes a good accompaniment. For a cigar, choose a medium-bodied Nicaraguan or Dominican smoke.

BOWMORE DISTILLERY On the south-eastern shore of Loch Indaal, Bowmore still operates its own floor maltings, which supply part of the malted barley it uses. The distillery traces its origins to 1779 and is the oldest working distillery on Islay. Suntory bought its owner, Morrison Bowmore Distillers, in 1994.
