

GIRVAN 1989 | 31 YEARS OLD

Douglas Laing XOP | Single Grain Whisky

Girvan 1989 is a single cask single grain whisky, bottled by Douglas Laing in its Xtra Old Particular range for Swiss Hermann Brothers at 56.9% volume. Old grain whiskies are quiet something special and unique. DISTILLATION & MATURATION: Distilled in Girvan's column stills, the spirit matured in a single cask for 31 years before bottling in 2021 at cask strength. SUGGESTIONS: Serve neat in a tulip glass, with water alongside. Add a few drops at a time to adjust the strength.

Tasting notes

GIRVAN DISTILLERY Girvan, in South Ayrshire, has distilled grain whisky since 1963, when its first Coffey still was installed. It is owned by William Grant & Sons and supplies the Grant's blends. A malt distillery, Ladyburn, worked on the same site from 1965 to 1975. Douglas Laing, the independent bottler behind this release, was founded in 1948 by Fred Douglas Laing and remains family-owned, now in its third generation.
