

WRITER'S TEARS DOUBLE OAK

Irish Blended Whisky

Writers' Tears Double Oak is a fantastic blend of two premium whiskey styles aged in two types of wood – American and French Oak. Triple-distilled, non-chill filtered and bottled at 46% ABV. The new expression is made possible by a close collaboration between the Walsh family in Ireland's County Carlow and the Legaret family in Cognac, France.

Tasting notes

Color

Straw-yellow

Aroma

Sweet vanilla, notes of cinnamon, plum & poached pear.

Taste

Pressed grapes and citrus zest.

Finish

Chocolate undertones and lingering spice.

About the producer Walsh Whiskey has rarely released a better whiskey on the market than the 2019 whiskey, which contains two expressions created in collaboration with the Legaret family of Deau Cognac. French oak casks of bourbon and cognac are used for the unique combination of single pot stills and Irish single malt whiskeys, which is probably the perfect interpretation of the Irish Blend.
