

CHICHIBU THE PEATED 2012

Japanese Single Malt | 4 Years

This bottle is part of Chichibu's dedicated peated range, distilled in 2012 from heavily peated malt and bottled in 2016, at cask strength of 54.5% volume. MATURATION: The spirit was matured for four years, part of a limited single cask release within the Chichibu peated series. SUGGESTIONS: Serve neat in a tulip glass at room temperature, or add a few drops of water to open the smoke. Pairs well with grilled fish, smoked meats or dark chocolate.

Tasting notes

Color

Amber gold.

Aroma

Peat smoke, malt and orchard fruit, with hints of citrus peel.

Taste

Bold smoke over sweet barley, with a nutty, savoury edge.

Finish

Long, evolving into smouldering wood smoke.

Chichibu Distillery Founded in 2008 by Ichiro Akuto, grandson of the founder of the closed Hanyu distillery, Chichibu is located in Saitama Prefecture. Akuto built the distillery to revive Japanese single malt production on a small, hands-on scale, sourcing malt including heavily peated barley for dedicated peated releases.
