

KININVIE 1990 / 23 YEARS

Single Malt Whisky

A premium single malt Scotch whisky that marks a milestone in the history of William Grant & Sons. This is the result of the aging in a combination of Bourbon and sherry barrels for almost a quarter of a century. Each bottle displays the year of distillation and bears the issue number as well as an individual bottle number. Presented in an elegant, subtle and minimalistic bottle that represents the determined work of the master blender Brian Kinsman for a whiskey of incomparable quality.

Tasting notes

Aroma

Rich and lively with notes of ripe fruit and creamy vanilla.

Taste

Well-balanced with a soft and silky texture, intense vanilla notes followed by oak and spices.

Finish

Long lasting

Kininvie Distillery - A premium Whisky from William Grant & Sons As early as the end of the 1980s, the company assumed that global demand for Scotch whiskey would continue to rise, and took the unusual step of building a new distillery and producing a new malt for the lovers of blended whiskey. Since then, the Kininvie Distillery has always produced high-quality whiskeys. In the past 23 years, the distillery has concentrated exclusively on the blending of whiskeys. It was only in 2013 that it introduced a limited edition of a single malt exclusively for Taiwan for the first time.