

MACALLAN A NIGHT ON EARTH

Scotland 2021 | Release | Single Malt Whisky

The Macallan "A Night on Earth in Scotland" is the first expression in the gifting series. Every release will display a different destination and its local family traditions, capturing the universal joy of celebrating a special occasion with loved ones. The first release pays homage to New Year's Eve, known as 'Hogmanay' in Scotland. According to tradition, the 'first footer' will carry three things: shortbread, whisky and coal for the fire. Each gift is designed to bring comfort and happiness for the rest of the year. Shortbread is a prominent flavour in the whisky. Renowned French Japanese illustrator 'Erica Dorn' collaborated to create the playful design of the bottle and packaging, recalling the festive rituals and fireworks celebrated around the world at the end of the year.

Tasting notes

Aroma

Buttery notes of baked apple and pastry.

Taste

Tasty sweet notes of roasted almonds, orange, and cinnamon.

About the Distillery Macallan was founded by Alexander Reid in 1824, becoming one of Scotland's first legal distilleries. Located on the banks of the River Spey, a region with the ideal climate that creates unique conditions for whisky production. The reputation of The Macallan is built on a product of outstanding quality and distinctive character, founded upon a set of guiding principles. From place to process, people and passion, the Six Pillars are the backdrop to The Macallan's unique spirit. Today the new Macallan distillery and visitor experience marry their whisky-making heritage with the innovative vision. Newly designed by internationally acclaimed architects, Rogers Stirk Harbour + Partners, the iconic evolution of the home of The Macallan embodies the care and superior craftsmanship that goes into every bottle of their single malts.
